Re: Yesterday's Arguments

Counsel for the industry yesterday presented arguments in Dex Media West et. al. v. City of Seattle et. al., as did an attorney for the City of Seattle.

The three-member panel of Ninth Circuit judges adjourned the hearing without issuing an oral opinion. A written opinion, date uncertain, will follow.

The arguments are fascinating and are available in audio at www.ca9.uscourts.gov.

Click on video and audio in the left menu, then click the "Listen" button to the right of the case listing for Dex Media West et. al. v. City of Seattle et. al.. The case number is 11-35399.

Please let me hear should have any questions or comments.
